As it was the case in many countries, barefooting in Canada began through shows. The first record of a barefoot demonstration was during 1960, when Marc Cloutier made it at Lac des Sables in Sainte Agathe, Quebec. Such shows and demonstration continue during following years, and the first competition was held in 1964 on Red River in Selkirk near Winnipeg, Manitoba. It was an endurance tournament, won by Bill Bueckert, with a result of 57 seconds. This competition was carried out nearly annually until 1978.

Maurice Bouffard

In 1966 a two-events competition took place on the Saint Laurent river at Pointe aux Trembles, Quebec. Louis Simard won in endurance with 5 minutes 2 seconds and in slalom (with 9 buoys). During the Expo' 67 in Montreal, Marc and Remi Cloutier presents barefoot skiing daily on Lac des Regates. Louis Simard and Maurice Bouffard also made demonstrations during this Expo'67.

During 1971 a barefoot competition with four events took place on the Lac des Nations in Sherbrooke, Quebec, where Louis Simard became an absolute champion. In 1973, Australian footers Mary Mc Millan, John Hacker, Peter Trimm and Gary Barton came to Canada for a clinic tour and an international competition with four events was held on Saint Laurent river in Boucherville, Quebec. This competition gathered Australian and American footers and Denis Chabot was the first Canadian footer to compete internationally.

During 1978, Mike Strubble organized the Canadian Barefoot Skiing Committee and became the first president of the barefoot waterskiing at Canadian Water Ski Association. The endurance event was carried on Lake Simon in Cheneville, Quebec.

The first Canadian rule book was printed in 1979 and the first Canadian barefoot nationals were organised on Thousand Islands River in Two Mountain Lake, Quebec. During summer 1980, the first western Canadian competition is held on Whitewood Lake, Alberta. A Canadian team enters for the first time the World Barefoot Championships and finished 8th out of 12 countries.

In 1984 Canadian Barefoot Association incorporated by David Taran, Bob Katz and Marie Pinsonneault. David Taran is the first CBA President and Bob Katz the secretary. The following year, David Tarn became the first Canadian member of the Group 1 barefoot council, sitting as a reserve member at the World Barefoot Council. In 1988, Karyn Cromwell became the first Canadian member of the World and Group 1 barefoot councils, with full voting rights.

During 1992 Worlds in Great Britain, a strong Canadian team won its first bronze overall medal. Beth Leboff won also the gold medal in the jump event as Karyn Cromwell-Scarpa took silver in jump and bronze in the overall.

Other Candian medal winners at a World level were Ryan Andrew at 1995 junior Worlds (silver in tricks and bronze overall), Karyn Chabot at 1999 junior Worlds (bronze overall), Karyn Scarpa (2003 senior Worlds: gold in jump and bronze overall), Gordie Croteau (2003 senior worlds bronze overall, 2005 senior Worlds gold in tricks and silver overall, 2006 senior Worlds gold in slalom and bronze in jump), Paul Mc Donald (2006 open Worlds bronze in tricks), Caitlyn Rowland (2009 junior Worlds gold slalom & bronze overall) and Becky Moynes-Meyer (2010 and 2018 open Worlds bronze in jump, 2024 silver overall and bronze medal in tricks).

Canadian team gained also silver medal in 2003 senior Worlds and bronze in 2006 senior Worlds.

In 2018, Dream Lake in Napanee welcomed the World Championships and in 2022, Gordie Croteau won the senior 2/3/4 jump event at the 1st World Master Chamionships.
